most the be to Muslims by considered is It .Muslim Sahih on commentary important most the is Kubra-al Sunan اطلاعات وڈیو authentic of all hadith collections. It was written by Shaykh Abu Bakr, a student of the great Hanafi jurist Shams al-Din Ahmed Ibn Abi al-Safi (d. 1465). It is also known as the kubra al-Wajib of his teacher Abu Bakr ibn al-Arabi, meaning "the needed completion" of Abu Bakr's kubra or "gateway" to learning. Sunan al-Kubra is comprised of some 5,600 ahadith, more than half of which are quoted from Sahih al-Bukhari and Sahih Muslim. In all, more than 40,000 words are recorded in Sunan al-Kubra. Some hadith commentators have noted that the ahadith in Sunan al-Kubra are often contrary to the statements in the original texts of Sahih Muslim and Sahih al-Bukhari. Basis of Bukhari and Muslim The tradition of Abu Bakr ibn al-Arabi represents a commentary on the two largest and most respected collections of hadith found in the Islamic tradition, the Sahih al-Bukhari and the Sahih al-Muslim. It presents the views and opinions of Abu Bakr (d. 1467), a student and later teacher of Abu al-Hasan al-Ash'ari (d. 1469), another student and later teacher of Shams al-Din Ahmed al-Damanashi (d. 1465), a student and teacher of al-Tirmidhi (d. 862). Al-Tirmidhi lived more than twenty years after the time of al-Damanashi. The two main sources of Sunan al-Kubra are the "Kubra" or "gateway" commentary of Abu Bakr ibn al-Arabi on the text of al-Tirmidhi and the text of al-Damanashi. Abu Bakr ibn al-Arabi lived during the time of al-Tirmidhi. In this commentary, the author quotes many hadith and narrators, including statements from famous Sahabah and Imams of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). Manuscripts of Sunan al-Kubra 82157476af
