Write an introduction to an informative and factual blog post titled "A Guide to Moving Out". ## Answer the following questions in a minimum of 150 words each: ## Think of someone who is very close to you. How would you describe them? What are their characteristics? What do they like and dislike? Would you say they are different from you? How? Why? ## For the next 2 weeks, make a habit of documenting everything you do on a daily basis. Write down what you ate, where did you go and whom did you go with. Write down your conversations and what transpired during the day. Write down your thoughts (about anything). ## Answer the following questions in a minimum of 150 words each: ## Think of something you love to do. Is it something you can always do? If so, write down 2 things that it consists of and why you like doing it. If not, what is the one thing that puts a stop to doing it and why? ## Imagine someone asking you, "Hey! What's your secret?" Write down an answer. How does this relate to the other tutorials on this blog and how does it interact with your beliefs and actions? What would you tell them if they asked you this question? ## Write an outline for a short story named "The Dog". The story should be between 300-500 words long. It needs to have a title, four sub-headings and the body of the story. The sub-headings must be these: 1. The First Chapter 2. The Second Chapter 3. The Third Chapter 4. The Fourth Chapter ## ## Research how to make a post on Twitter and make sure you've selected "edit" instead of "delete", if you have not already done so. ## Here are some tips for writing great tweets. Read through them carefully and follow each step, if you have not already done so. ## As part of your research, you will need to look at the example tweets below. Feel free to create a Twitter account for this purpose.

The following are examples of great tweets: * Please note that these are only example tweets. They have been created by us using our own accounts on Twitter. You can, however, use another account with the same username as this tutorial has suggested if you wish to do so. Feel free to purchase a domain name for your site too, instead of using Blogger or WordPress.
